

dent body

The university attracts students from various regions. The largest part of the student body is made up of students in Babylon Province. It also attracts numerous students from Karbala, Baghdad, Diwaniyah, Kufa and Najaf. The university has a student-run newspaper. Plays produced by students of the College of Fine Arts are performed internally and in national events and forums. University alumni have powers to elect staff. One of the main aspects that distinguish the University of Babylon is its academic and financial independence.

The image shows the entrance to the University of Babylon. A large, ornate archway is flanked by two tall, rectangular structures. The archway features the university's name in English, "UNIVERSITY OF BABYLON", and Arabic, "جامعة بابل". Several flags are flying from poles in front of the entrance. In the top left corner of the slide, there is a logo for the QS STARS Rating System, which includes the text "QS STARS RATING SYSTEM" and "2019 ★★".
